Greater Baltimore History Alliance Reciprocal Admission Program Guidelines

- This program is an added benefit for individual members of participating Greater Baltimore History Alliance (GBHA) sites. Museum members who join at a level equivalent to $100 or above can enjoy free general admission when visiting other participating GBHA sites. Valid for free general museum admission for 2 people.
- No other benefits or discounts provided by the original membership except free general admission are extended from the partner museum. The free general admission does not apply to "materials fees," or additional cost for special programs.
- In order to receive the free admission benefit at a partner museum the visitor must show the GBHA Reciprocal Membership Card and the original museum membership card. Visitors should also be prepared to show a picture ID.
- The GBHA Reciprocal Membership Card expires one year from issue date.

ROAM - Reciprocal Organization of Associated Museums

SAVE MONEY WHEN YOU TRAVEL!

BMI Members at $100+ receive free admission for 2 people at participating museums throughout the country. Many museums also offer member discounts in gift shops and member prices for special programs. Participating museums are added regularly; visit <https://sites.google.com/site/roammuseums/> for the most up to date details! Simply present your BMI card with a ROAM sticker for admission. Reciprocal museums may change without notice.
