Watch

Watch Ms. Travis-Keene read

Cook-A-Doodle-Doo! by Janet Stevens &

Susan Stevens Crummel on the museum's

Facebook and say hi to her friend,

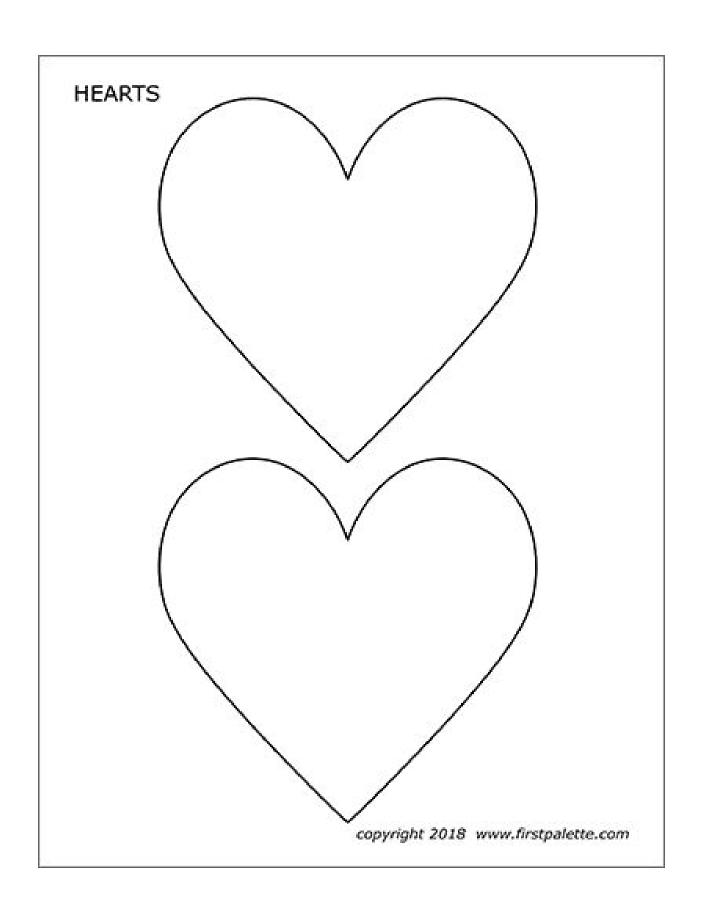

Chickenteague!

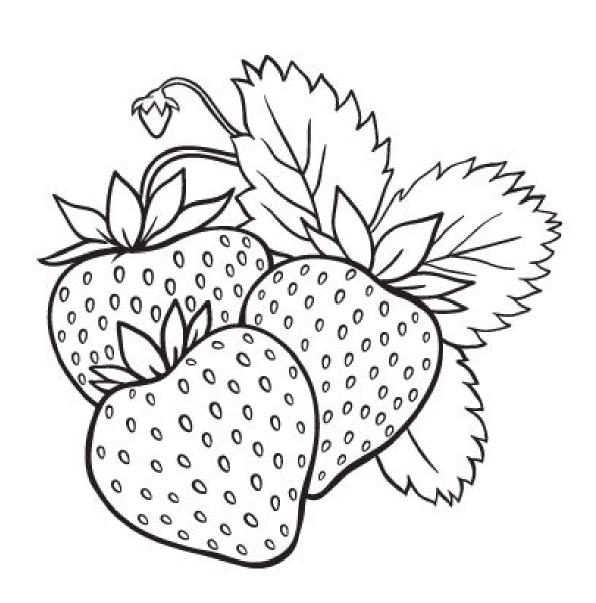

Do

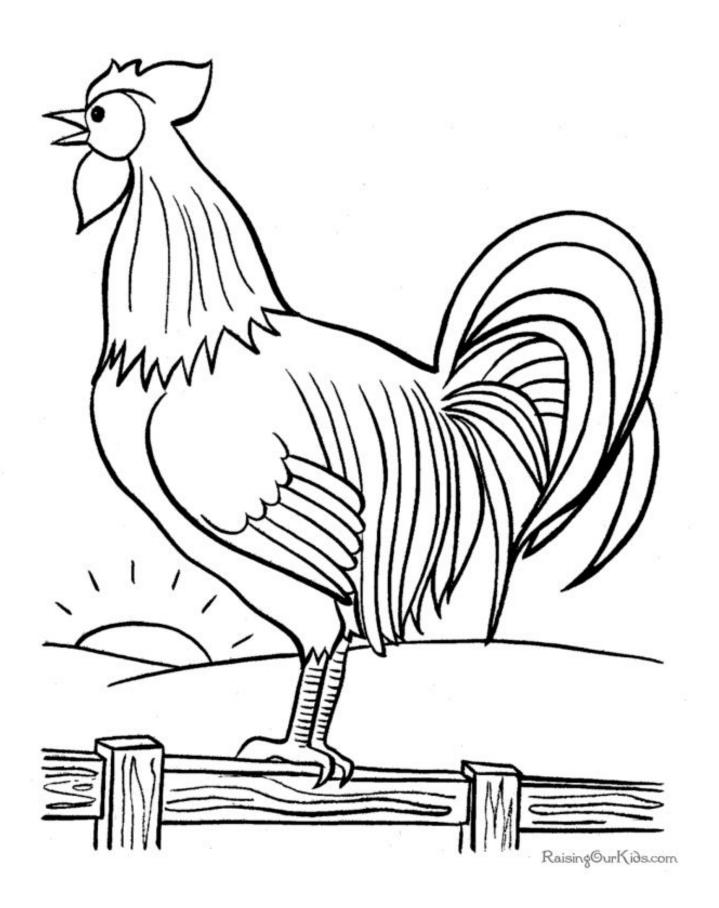

- Design your own strawberry card to give to a friend using the heart coloring page below. See Ms. Travis-Keenes instructions in the storytime video.
- 2. What kitchen tools did you learn about in the story? (Hint: Something to measure with.)
- 3. Was it funny to learn Big Brown
 Rooster was related to the Little Red Hen? After coloring some of the animal coloring pages, which animal was your favorite? What does your favorite sound like?
- 4. Create a matching game using kitchen spoons following the directions in the storytime video.
- 5. What is your favorite dessert? Make your very own strawberry shortcake with an adult using the recipe below!

Sing along to the song "Pat-A-Cake", by CoComelon Nursery Rhymes & Kids Songs, which can be found https://youtu.be/U6D_cO3caEQ

Preheat oven to 450° Fahrenheit. Sift flour, then sift together dry ingredients. Cut in butter until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Add egg and milk, stirring by hand just enough to moisten. Spread dough in greased 8 x 1%-inch round pan, building up edges slightly. Bake for 15 to 48 minutes. Remove cake from pan; cool on rack 5 minutes. Split into two layers; lift top off carefully. Alternate layers of cake, whipped cream, and strawberries, ending with strawberries on top-
